PRODUCTION SPONSORS

AUDREY S. GEISEL

Audrey S. Geisel was an ardent supporter of the Globe's artistic and arts engagement programs for decades before passing in December of 2018. With 2019's 22nd consecutive season of San Diego's favorite holiday tradition, Dr. Seuss's How the Grinch Stole Christmas!, we honor Audrey's legacy. A longtime La Jolla resident, Audrey served as President and CEO of Dr. Seuss Enterprises and as President of the Dr. Seuss Foundation, which continues to support a variety of arts, education, and literacy organizations in San Diego. Though Audrey showed tremendous generosity to many worthwhile organizations, her love of learning and literacy was a driving force in her charitable giving, benefiting the National Center for Family Literacy, San Diego Zoological Society, Vista Hill, La Jolla Playhouse, UC San Diego, and, of course, The Old Globe. We thank Audrey for supporting this beloved holiday production during its long life at the Globe, and offer a round of applause for her deep and abiding commitment to our community that will last for many years to come.

RANDOM HOUSE CHILDREN'S BOOKS

The Old Globe is pleased to recognize Random House Children's Books for its continued and generous support of Dr. Seuss's How the Grinch Stole Christmas! Over the past several years, Random House Children's Books has donated in excess of 20,000 books by Dr. Seuss to Title I students who attend Free Student Matinees of this beloved musical. This year, for the first time, Random House is providing books in both English and Spanish. The Globe thanks Random House for this gift, which will encourage thousands of children to read and will provide a special keepsake by which to remember their holiday visit to The Old Globe.

ARTIST SPONSOR

Artist Sponsor for Edward Watts (as The Grinch)

BANK OF AMERICA

For many decades, Bank of America has been a vital supporter of The Old Globe's outstanding arts engagement and artistic programming, and this year is proud to support Edward Watts in his third outing as The Grinch. Bank of America believes the arts matter: they help economies thrive; help individuals connect with each other and across cultures; and educate and enrich societies. Bank of America recognizes the subtle yet important impact the arts has on the local economy. The arts bring families and cultures together, contributing to the community, education, and everyone's quality of life.

GRINCH CHILDREN'S INITIATIVES SPONSORS

The Old Globe wishes to acknowledge and thank the following generous sponsors of the Children's Initiatives for Dr. Seuss's How the Grinch Stole Christmas!, including a series of free student matinees for young children enrolled in Title I schools, and a sensory-friendly performance for families.

TERRY ATKINSON AND KATHY TAYLOR, THE BINFORD FAMILY, COUNTY OF SAN DIEGO, ELAINE AND DAVE DARWIN, THE JAMES IRVINE FOUNDATION, JEFFREY AND SHEILA LIPINSKY FAMILY FOUNDATION, AND THE PEGGY AND ROBERT MATTHEWS FOUNDATION.

WHAT IF every child COULD EXPERIENCE GREAT THEATRE?

MAKE A YEAR-END GIFT BY DEC. 31!

SUPPORT ARTS ENGAGEMENT FOR YOUTH

5,000 students from over 75 schools each year experience the magic of theatre at The Old Globe. Children find their voices in inclusive programs, free student matinees, and cultural events that empower them to create, explore, and connect with others.

“MY SON, WHO IS limited verbally and battles autism, loved your sensory-friendly offering of The Tale of Despereaux. These shows have opened new worlds for him!”
—Cyndi, parent who experienced a sensory-friendly performance and a free activity on the Globe’s Copley Plaza

“IT’S A HOME AWAY from home... a place where I can be myself. I have learned so much about many different types of art.”
—Quora, participant in the Pam Farr Summer Shakespeare Studio

“THANK YOU FOR letting us watch The Grinch. It was very funny. I loved it so much.”
—Camilla, second-grade student after a Free Student Matinee

Your support makes these programs possible. Thank you!

Welcome to The Old Globe!

Year after year, we see the important legacy of Dr. Seuss and the late Audrey Geisel impact more lives at The Old Globe. Dr. Seuss's How the Grinch Stole Christmas! is the first experience with live theatre for so many children in San Diego. Through free student matinees, sensory-friendly performances, and community programs and events, the gift the Geisel's have given us all keeps growing, just like the Grinch's heart. We hope you enjoy this holiday tradition!

As you may know, the impact of The Old Globe extends far beyond the stages and seats in our three theatres. Five years ago we launched our Department of Arts Engagement, which has since become a core part of the Globe: we are committed to making theatre matter to more people. Our talented and dedicated arts engagement staff has introduced life-changing programs that bring theatre to communities across San Diego County.

Whether we are working with children and students through our Teaching Artists or bringing Shakespeare to incarcerated populations, we are daily witnesses to the transformative power of theatre art to improve the quality of life, inspire people to achieve, and develop new and lasting connections between individuals and communities.

We need your help—not just to create the beautiful plays, musicals, and classics you see onstage here, but also to continue making a difference in the lives of people who might not otherwise experience the wonder of theatre. I am honored to support the Globe, and I invite you to join us as a donor. Fantastic benefits and special experiences await, but most of all, you will help make theatre matter to more people.

I hope you will connect with me and let me know what you think about this play and any others you see at the Globe. Please email me directly at nclay@TheOldGlobe.org.

Thank you for coming to The Old Globe—enjoy the show!

FROM BARRY

This year Dr. Seuss's How the Grinch Stole Christmas! celebrates its 22nd holiday season at The Old Globe. That's an astonishing run: presidents and potentates have come and gone, but The Grinch endures. Children who were featured in our company two decades ago are now adults with kids of their own. And new generations of theatregoers continue to settle into our seats for their first dose of Seussian sweetness and magic. Producing The Grinch is one of the best things about my job.

The Grinch is on our stage thanks to the generosity of Audrey Geisel, one of the Globe's most valued friends. The world lost Audrey late in 2018, even as this show continued its brilliant run here, so this is the first year that The Grinch's heart will grow in size while ours remain broken at the passing of our dear friend and patron. I had the special privilege of getting to know Audrey in the last years of her life. I'd visit her office in La Jolla, which was the very room in which her late husband Theodor Geisel, Dr. Seuss himself, wrote and drew the books that have become central to the lives of children worldwide. It was a true thrill to be there, and a special delight to be able to thank Audrey in person for her ongoing support. Now it is an honor to memorialize her here by noting that her ongoing largess will support and stabilize this institution for generations to come. She changed the Globe in her lifetime by setting this production in motion, and she sustains us in her death through a powerful legacy of support.

One of the ways that Audrey's support continues to enrich San Diego is through our sensory-friendly performance of The Grinch. For the eighth time, we will present a unique matinee adapted specifically for families with members on the autism spectrum and with other special needs. It is a privilege to bring theatre to a group of our neighbors for whom access has been a challenge, and it is an honor to be a leader among theatre companies nationwide doing this important work.

This and other initiatives are part of the Globe's renewed commitment to the notion of making theatre in service of the public good. As a not-for-profit institution, the Globe has an obligation to bring our work to all San Diegans. We strive each year to create new points of entry, to this show and everything else we do, so that our neighbors all over this region can enjoy a real stake in our work. Our Department of Arts Engagement is designed to carry this impulse into all corners of The Old Globe and all parts of San Diego County.

I am grateful to have this happy and spectacular (and big and green and hairy) tradition so close to the heart of my professional and personal lives. And on behalf of the Board, artists, and staff of The Old Globe, I wish you a joyous holiday season.

Thanks for coming. Enjoy the show.

2019 YEAR IN REVIEW

BY FREEDOME BRADLEY-BALLENTINE

Wow, it's been four years since the Department of Arts Engagement (AE) started its grand endeavor of making theatre matter to more of our neighbors. Every day we ask ourselves, "How are we doing?" It's the spark that drives us. What is the best way to convey all that's happening here at the Globe and around San Diego? How are we sharing our story? Even for some of you who are subscribers or regular ticket buyers, staying informed of all the Globe is doing here in Balboa Park and across San Diego can be challenging. So we decided to write our first year-end review to celebrate our community and to thank you all for making 2019 such a magical time to be at the Globe!

Our 10-minute playwriting program Community Voices (CV) took center stage in 2019, kicking off the Powers New Voices Festival. Several writers from San Diego had their work developed by our Teaching Artists (TA) and presented by professional actors. Miki Vale, a former CV participant and current TA, spoke about her classes, saying, "Things got pretty emotional, the tissue box was passed around. Classmates were very supportive of each other." This year we offered CV at nearly a dozen different locations throughout San Diego as a service to our community.

Even though AXIS, the Globe's free performing arts series on Copley Plaza, started the year very wet with rain during performances such as I Love Africa!, the sun came out (this is San Diego), and people were in great spirits. We had huge participation in the workshops and crafts. Highlights from the year were Disco Manila Fever, an ABBA-influenced band from the Philippines, and our annual family-friendly event Happy Birthday, Mr. Shakespeare!

Over 3,000 people attended Globe for All, our free tour of plays from our mainstage and Shakespeare. We visited 25 locations throughout San Diego, our largest touring year ever. This year's production of The Winter's Tale was directed by Daniel Jáquez of TuYo Theatre. 2019 might also be looked at as the year of Daniel, who was part of the inaugural Classical Directing Fellowship here at the Globe, in addition to writing Hermanas (Sisters) for our coLAB Day of the Dead Celebration event in City Heights.

coLAB, our community-centered and artist-driven collaboration, kicked off the summer season with The Ruby in Us, a new musical featuring participants from the Fourth District Seniors Resource Center. The musical was inspired by the Norman Rockwell painting The Problem We All Live With and stories from the women of the Fourth District who lived through the terror of Jim Crow segregation. Meanwhile, Pasajes/Passages, a bilingual play, interwove the stories of four women from the South Bay, tested by a fast-changing world.

As always, young people were a huge part of what happens at the Globe. This year 5,000 students visited our theatres as part of our Free Student Matinee program. Some even took part in the annual Pam Farr Summer Shakespeare Studio. This year's production took place in our indoor theatre with a thrilling performance filled with solid Shakespeare, self-reflections, and original music and lyrics co-written by a wonderful ensemble of teens. Our partnership with School in the Park continues to blossom as students from Rosa Parks Elementary School in City Heights are now discovering why theatre matters through exploration of Shakespeare scenes, projects, and performances.

"Learning isn't only for young people" could be the motto for Globe Learning. In 2019 we offered over a half dozen opportunities for our community of theatre makers, educators, and artists to expand their tool kits through workshops like Spanish for Teaching Artists and Monologue Coaching and Audition Bootcamp, led by industry professionals.

Finally, our nationally respected Reflecting Shakespeare program continues to transform lives of participants and practitioners. A newly launched Reflecting Shakespeare Teaching Artist Training and Curriculum Development Program, funded by the California Arts Council, Arts in Corrections, began in October. Five TAs were trained in the methodologies of the program and best practices for working in correctional facilities.

AE ended 2019 actively meeting community-based organizations and government officials in the area of criminal justice, discussing future programs that could support people exiting incarceration as well as youth at the threshold of becoming justice-involved, and asking them how can we be of service.

In short, not a bad year for San Diego. Thank you all for supporting the Globe, San Diego—without you there would be no us. ■
