

PROGRAM	POINT OF CONTACT	DESCRIPTION
	AEinfo@theoldglobe.org	Free programs on our Copley Plaza created to broaden our concept of audience, to include communities across San Diego County and increase access to Balboa Park.
	AEinfo@theoldglobe.org	Behind the Curtain offers participants a hands-on chance to explore the magic of creating a theatrical production.
	AEinfo@theoldglobe.org	Quarterly dinners hosted at the Globe, bringing together different facets of our community and creating an opportunity for authentic relationships.
	AEinfo@theoldglobe.org	A collaborative art-making process between community members and artists, turning stories into theatre and developing both artist and new work.
	AEinfo@theoldglobe.org	A series of free workshops dedicated to the process of creating short plays by adult residents of San Diego County in and for their communities.
	AEinfo@theoldglobe.org	FALL: A three week tour of a FREE Shakespeare production reaching thousands of people that include workshops and talkbacks. SPRING: A one week tour of a production from our season. Occurs every Spring.
	GlobeLearning@theoldglobe.org	The Old Globe offers ongoing professional development training for our teaching artists, including opportunities to work with visiting guest artists who support, strengthen, and advance staff skills.
	AEinfo@theoldglobe.org	21 weeks of programs with 5th, 6th & 7th grade classes from City Heights.
	Studio@TheOldGlobe.org	Participants develop their artistic muscles, and a personal relationship to Shakespeare's writings. Participants create original material, are engaged physically with dance, movement, and stage combat. Vocal and music classes are also part of the curriculum.

AEinfo@theoldglobe.org

A program that utilizes theatre-based activities, self-reflection, and journaling through the study and performance of Shakespeare at correctional facilities and residential rehabilitation programs.

Free Student Matinees	freestudentmatinees@TheOldGlobe.org	Free Student Matinees are held annually. Serving over 4,600 students and teachers.
Pre-Show Workshops	freestudentmatinees@TheOldGlobe.org	Hundreds of hours of Pre- Show Workshops are offered where Teaching Artists go into classrooms to lead interactive and engaging workshops in preparation of seeing the performances.
Sensory Friendly Initiatives	AEinfo@theoldglobe.org	Productions for families, children, and individuals who have special needs.
Behind the Scenes Tours	Tours@theoldglobe.org	We offer nearly 100 backstage tours annually that focus on the history of The Old Globe.
Teaching Artists	AEinfo@theoldglobe.org	Our teaching artists are not only committed to reaching and engaging multigenerational audiences in the art of theatrical storytelling and production, but are also devoted to creating and cultivating connections within our community.