

Going to The Old Globe

I am going to see a musical at The Old Globe. A musical is a live play with singing, dancing and music played live by musicians.

Here are some things I will see when I go to see the show:

Crossing the street to the theatre.

The Grinch tree on the plaza.

The entrance to the theatre.

The theatre lobby.

The seats and the stage. The curtain is bright red.

Someone will welcome us with a speech from the stage before the show.

The lights change color and get brighter or darker during different parts of the show.

This is the Grinch with noisy Whos. The Whos are characters in the play. The Grinch doesn't like noise.

The Grinch gets tied up by Whos.

The Whos sing a song while shopping for presents.

The Who children are sleeping while their family gets ready for Christmas morning.

These are pretend houses with puppets. The puppets sing Christmas songs.

The Grinch surprises the audience.

The Whos love to sing about Christmas.

In the end, even The Grinch loves Christmas.
